CURRENT EVENTS.

The News of the World in Brief Paragraphs.

It is understood that Secretary of the navy Long will retire some time during the next few months. A special issue of postage stamps commemorative of the life of the late President McKinley is in contemplation.

Nearly one hundred persons were injured or overcome during the progress of the McKinley memorial pageant in Chicago.

The people of the United States will be given the opportunity to contribute to a fund to erect a McKinley monument at Canton.

It is stated that President Roosevelt will make some important changes in the Secret Service department of the government.

President McKinley carried $315,000 in life insurance policies. There are three policies of $100,000 each, one of $10,000 and one of $5,000.

In an engagement with the Boers under General Botha, near the Scheepers Nek, the British were defeated. Over two hundred men were killed, wounded or captured.

Emma Goldmann, the anarchist who is confined in prison in Chicago, will be allowed her freedom until her case comes to trial if she can furnish a bond of twenty thousand dollars.

The first formal Cabinet meeting of President Roosevelt's Administration was held at Washington. After the meeting the President, Secretary Root and General Leonard Wood discussed the Cuban situation.

The chemical and bacteriological experts who have been examining the bullets and revolver with which Czolgosz killed President McKinley have failed to find any trace of poison after making two thorough tests.

Aguinaldo has written to civil governor Taft and military governor Chaffee, saying that he regrets with the rest of the American nation, the great loss suffered by the people of the United States in the death of President McKinley.

The stockholders of the Buffalo exposition have sustained a loss of about a million dollars on account of the blow given to the enterprise by the murder of President McKinley, but the citizens of Buffalo are determined to carry out their original plans to a glorious finish in all other respects.

Die Information, the clerical organ in Vienna says: "The Pope addressed the Catholic Bishops Sunday and declared that the late President McKinley was a victim of the excessive freedom granted to the people of the United States and urged that it was the duty of society to oppose the spread of socialism, Free Masonry, Judaism and Anarchy."

In Oklahoma City a mob forced an anarchist, who had made unpatriotic remarks about America and the late President, to kneel in the mud, give three cheers for the country, and kiss the flag. He was then pelted with stones and ordered to leave town. A man who criticized the police for not interfering was placed in jail in order to protect him from violence.

STATE SIFTINGS.

Kentucky News Condensed Into Spicy Notes.

The Kentucky distillers, at a meeting held in Louisville agreed to limit the output of whisky for the season ending July, 1902, to 27,500,000 gallons.

The Rev. Lew G. Wallace, chaplain of the state prison, will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for superintendent of public instruction.

The extension of rural free delivery in Kentucky is to be pushed rapidly. Mr. H. G. Rising, general agent of the post office department, has been assigned to the state and has been investigating all proposed routes. He says the roads of Kentucky offer a great field for the new work.

The chairman of the Board of Trustees of the African Baptist church in Frankfort, and Mike Buckley, a white contractor, were arrested in that city charged with attempting to erect a church directly opposite the Executive Mansion without permission from the city council.

Chairman Allie Young, of the Democratic State Central committee, has named the following State Campaign committee: C. C. McClord, of Springfield, chairman; Ollie James, of Marion; Louie Evans, of Russellville; John B. Chenault, of Richmond, and S. W. Hagar, of Ashland.

The union miners of Hopkins county have rejected the proposals made by the mine operators for a settlement of the conflict between the union miners and their former employers. The reply of the union official has already been sent to the attorneys for the mine owners, who have not yet taken any action regarding the matter.

Cloverport, victim of one of the most disastrous fires in the history of the State, is rapidly becoming itself again. Where a few months ago business houses and residences were a mass of ruins, handsome stores and homes now stand or are in course of erection. And the work of building up the town continues without interruption.

Cabinet Members Will Remain.

President Roosevelt asked the members of the cabinet to continue their present positions through out his term, and announced that he would follow the policy outlined by President McKinley in his speech at Buffalo. He asked the cabinet to remain as if he were making an original tender of the portfolios, and declared his offer precluded any resignations. Secretary Gage has agreed to remain permanently, and Secretary Hay at least for the present.

Geo. W. Lane, Powamoo, Mich., writes: "Your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the best remedy for indigestion and stomach trouble that I ever used. For years I suffered from dyspepsia, at times compelling me to stay in bed and causing me untold agony. I am completely cured. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. In recommending it to friends who suffer from indigestion I always offer to pay for it if it fails. Thus far I have never paid." R. F. Haynes.

THE CLOSING SCENE.

In the Tragedy—The President's Body Consigned to the Grave.

With majestic solemnity, surrounded by his countrymen and his townspeople, in the presence of the President of the United States, the Cabinet, Justices of the United States Supreme Court, Senators and Representatives in Congress, the heads of the military and naval establishments, the Governors of States and great concourse of citizens, who had known and loved him, all that is mortal of the third President to fall by an assassin's bullet was committed to the grave.

Guarded by sentries, the body of President McKinley now reposes in the receiving vault of the Canton cemetery, surrounded by the greatest wealth of flowers ever gathered together in this country. The final scenes were enacted in the presence of over 100,000 people, nearly quadrupling the population of the little city of Canton, Thursday afternoon. The casket was not reopened, and even Mrs. McKinley was denied a last look. She was unable to participate in any of the services. Following a brief prayer at the McKinley home the body was removed to the Methodist church escorted by a great civic and military parade. After the services there the cortege reformed and proceeded to the cemetery, where, after the burial services for the dead had been recited, the body was placed in the vault, and as the long line of people passed by a Knights Templar quartet stood before the open vault and sang.

In response to the proclamation of President Roosevelt, memorial services were held in nearly every city in the country Thursday, and were attended by immense crowds. In many places all business was suspended and bells were tolled. Special memorial services were held by command of the King of England in Westminster Abbey and Canterbury Cathedral. There were services in all the capitals of the continent, in India, Manila, and Peking.

Osteopathy as a Profession.

Miss Ella Gardner, Cumberland Presbyterian missionary in Japan, says: "Osteopathy has done so much for me that were I choosing a secular vocation for a life work I certainly would choose it; and were it not for the time and money required to acquire the knowledge I would like to have it as a help in my work in the mission field."

The practitioner of osteopathy finds himself in possession of skill that the world is demanding, and he possesses and for several years will continue to possess, a natural monopoly of this skill. The unique nature of this skill whereby he effects cures in diseases curable by other means, together with the scarcity of men and women possessing the new power of healing, causes osteopathy to rank first among the professions in respect to pecuniary remuneration.

In point of honor and honorableness, osteopathy ranks co-equal with the other intellectual professions. From all the above causes, osteopathy is growing rapidly by the constant addition to the ranks of men and women from every walk of life, and especially from the ranks of college men and women. To these osteopathy offers a wide-open door.

Send for catalogue and investigate osteopathy. Address, Southern School of Osteopathy, Franklin, Ky.

4,500 MILES

In a Road Cart—Interesting Old Traveller Visits Our City.

Tuesday morning a most interesting old gentleman visited our town. He came into the city driving a prosperous looking little mustang attached to a unique vehicle. The cart was heavily loaded with a camping outfit. The old fellow attracted the attention of a Press representative, who approached him and engaged in conversation.

He gave his name as Richard Rowe, and was born in London, England, some sixty years ago and said that he was simply traveling for the benefit of his health. On Aug. 16th, 1900, he started forth from Reading, Shasta county, California, in his little two-wheeled cart, driving the little pony and had made the trip across the continent. He reached Chicago last month having traveled 4,535 miles. The Chicago papers published interesting accounts of the grizzled old Englishman's long journey. These papers, with many others containing pictures of himself and his faithful little mare "Minnie," he showed us.

He went from California into Nevada, from there to Idaho, south to Salt Lake City. Crossing the Rocky Mountains he arrived in Denver during the winter. Passing through Kansas and Nebraska he reached St. Louis. From there he went to Chicago. Leaving that city he started south and we find him in Marion. He said that he was looking for a niece who came from London and married an American physician. She told her father when she left London that if she could find "Uncle Richard" she would protect him from the hardships of this life and fill his old days with sunshine. He does not know the name of her husband, and thus his search seems to be a useless one. He speaks of the little mustang, that has been his faithful companion on the long journey as though she were a human. "Minnie and I couldn't live without each other; she is worth her weight in California nuggets—this little 'oss is; h-and Mr. Reporter, if you say anything h-about us in your paper say some thing nice h-about my Minnie for she deserves it." The old Briton said that he "followed the summer" and was now headed for the sunny southland. Bidding us a hearty farewell, this roaming son of the realm of King Edward entered his cart and he and little Minnie resumed their travels.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by R. F. Haynes and J. H. Orme. Cured of Chronic Diarrhea.

"I suffered for thirty years with diarrhea and thought I was past being cured," said John S. Holliday of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of diarrhea that I could do no kind of labor, and could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it may be in reach of all who suffer as I have." For sale by R. F. Haynes.

Illinois Central Railroad Co.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS.

The Board of Directors of the Illinois Central Railroad Company at a meeting held July 18, 1900 adopted the following preamble and resolution:

Upon the recommendation of the President the resolution adopted July 21, 1897, authorizing the free transportation of stockholders over the Company's lines, to Chicago and return, at the time of the annual meeting of stockholders, was reconsidered and amended so as to read as follows:

RESOLVED: That until the further order of this Board, there may be issued to each holder of one or more shares of the capital stock of the Illinois Central Railroad Company, as registered on the books of the company, a ticket enabling him or her to travel free over the Company's lines from the station on the Illinois Central Railroad nearest to his or her registered address, to Chicago and return, for the purpose of attending in person the meeting of the stockholders. Such ticket to be good for the journey to Chicago only during the four days immediately preceding, and the days of the meeting, and for the return journey from Chicago only on the day of meeting and the four days immediately following, when properly countersigned and stamped during business hours—that is to say, between 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.—in the office of the Assistant Secretary, Mr. W. G. Bruen, in Chicago. Such ticket may be obtained by any registered holder of stock on application in writing to the President of the Company in Chicago. Each application must state the full name and address of the stockholder exactly as given in his or her certificate of stock, together with the number and date of such certificate. No more than one person will be carried free in respect to any one holding of stock as registered on the books of the company.

By order of the Board of Directors.
A. G. HACKSTAFF, Sec'y.

The next annual meeting of the stockholders of the Illinois Central Railroad Company will be held at the office of the company in Chicago, Wednesday, October 16, 1901, at noon. For the purpose of this meeting, the stock transfer books will be closed from the close of business on Sept. 21, to the morning of Oct. 17.

ADULTERATED COFFEE.

GROVER WHITE FOUND GUILTY OF VIOLATING OHIO'S PURE FOOD LAWS.

Interesting Facts Concerning the Hoaxing of Coffee Brought Out by Scientific Experiments—Presence of Bacteria.

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 7.—The jury in Judge Meek's court in this city has found James White, a local grocer, guilty of selling adulterated coffee. The prosecution was based on a package of Arbuckles Arlosa coffee.

The State of Ohio, through the Pure Food Commission, prosecuted White. The case was on trial for nearly a month and attracted national attention.

The manufacturers of Arlosa coffee conducted the defense for Grocer White. The best attorneys in the country were retained to defend him, but, after a short consultation, a verdict of guilty was returned by the jury. The State of Ohio considers this a big victory. Pure Food Commissioner Blackburn has been waging a warfare on spurious food articles and the department has been successful.

The complaint of the State of Ohio was that Arlosa coffee was coated with a substance which concealed defects in the coffee and made it appear better than it is. The State charged this coating or glazing was a favorable medium for the propagation of bacteria.

Prof. G. A. Kirchmaler, of this city, a well known chemist, was the principal witness for the State. He had made scientific examinations of samples of Arlosa purchased from Grocer White in the open market. He found that each Arlosa berry contained an average of 300 bacteria. Mr. Kirchmaler further testified that other coffees he examined contained few bacteria or none at all. He declared that the glazed coffee was not a wholesome food product.

Chemist Schmidt, of Cincinnati, corroborated the testimony of Prof. Kirchmaler. The State did not present further testimony.

The defense through the Arbuckles, who prepared this glazed coffee, secured some of the most eminent chemists and scientists in the United States to give testimony in their behalf. Prof. H. W. Wiley, of the United States Agricultural Department; Prof. Vaughn of Ann Arbor University; Prof. Bielle and Webber, of the Ohio State University, were called to defend Arlosa. Dr. Wiley had made a careful examination of the method of manufacturing Arlosa. He told the 10,000,000 eggs used by the Arbuckles yearly in the preparation of this glazing. On this point in cross examination, the State's attorney deftly drew from him the information that these eggs might be kept in cold storage by the Arbuckles for a year or two at a time.

The experts who heard Dr. Wiley's testimony were pleased to be able to "catch" so famous a chemist. The doctor at one point in his testimony explained very clearly how it is that the egg put into the coffee pot by the house wife settles the coffee. He said that the heat coagulates the egg, and as it sinks to the bottom of the pot it carries the fine particles of coffee with it, and thus clarifies the drink. It is the act of coagulation in the coffee pot that does the work. Later on in his cross examination, he had to admit that when the egg was put on Arlosa coffee at the factory it became coagulated, and as egg cannot be coagulated but once, that the coating on coffee was practically no value, as a "settler" when it reached the coffee pot.

Prof. Wiley acknowledged that the glazing might be a favorable medium for the propagation of bacteria, although he would not testify positively either way because he was not a bacteriologist.

Prof. Vaughn, of Ann Arbor, also a witness for the Arbuckles, said he found bacteria on Arlosa coffee.

Prof. Bielle, another witness for the defense, found any number of lively bacteria on Arlosa coffee he examined, and he agreed that glazed coffee surely was a more favorable medium for the propagation of bacteria than unglazed coffee.

Pure Food Commissioner Blackburn says: "The State is very much elated over its victory against this corporation. We are now considering the advisability of informing every grocer in the State of Ohio that it is an infraction of the laws to sell Arlosa, and at the same time give warning to consumers that the coffee is an adulterated food article."

The verdict of the jury in this case is of national importance because a great many other States have pure food laws like that of Ohio, and it is natural to suppose that similar action will be taken by other Pure Food Commissioners to prevent the sale of glazed coffees.

Washington's Fastidious Kinsman.

Lawrence, Earl of Ferrers, a distant relative of George Washington, had a most tyrannical temper, and one day in a fit of passion he cut down with his sword his steward, an old gentleman named Johnson. The latter had given no provocation for the deed, and the crime was an act of brutality inexcusable save that the earl may not have been well balanced mentally. He was brought to trial for killing Johnson and demanded and received the privilege of being tried by his peers.

The house of lords was thronged during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive, and Ferrers was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but in vain. Ferrers met his fate with considerable bravado. He was carefully attired for the occasion and insisted on providing a silken cord for the ceremony. To this whim the executioner agreed, and the earl was turned off otherwise like any other felon.

Mr. Cleveland makes a good ex-president.

The one sad blow has made all the world akin.

The trial of Schley for winning the battle of Santiago is on.

May time demonstrate the truth of all the good things said of the new president.

The Boers have evidently caught their second wind, and the British caught their bullets.

Down with the anarchists is the shibboleth of a nation; it's a plank that will fit all platforms.

Let us hope the controversy between the doctors will not get to be so acrimonious that the chief will have to ask for an investigation in self-defense.

A new political party was organized in Kansas last week. The frequent launching of new parties reminds us that "a sucker is born every minute."

The talk of organizing an International Anarchist colony on some island in the Pacific is all bosh.
There is no island in that quarter or any other portion of this mundane sphere but what is too good for an anarchist to live upon. If Czolgosz is a representative of the class, there is but one spot to send them to—the potter's field.

Another week and the Marion Electric Light Co., together with the moon, will enable the town cow to find the flower beds in the front yards every night in the week—fifty-two weeks in the year.

From 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. last Thursday Marion appeared to be robbed in her peaceful Sunday attire. The business houses all closed. This sad occasion shows that there are common grounds upon which all may meet in Old Kentucky yet.

The red hand of anarchy has been felt in other countries, but the blow dealt here is the saddest and severest of all. Here more liberty and more freedom, here more happy people and the greatest happiness; here more and greater opportunities for the expansion and rise of man to the breadth and height to which nature and nature's God would call him. In this country, the light of the civilized world in the solution of the great economic and religious questions of the human race, the blow fell. As we hear the stigma, may God vouchsafe to us the privilege and honor of discovering and effectually using the ways and means for blotting the monster from the annals of generations to come.

ASSASSIN CZOLGOSZ

Found Guilty of Murder and Will Die in the Electric Chair.

Leon F. Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, was placed on trial in the Supreme Court in Buffalo Monday. The jury in the case, after brief deliberation, found the prisoner guilty of murder in the first degree. The passing of sentence will be deferred
for possibly two days by Judge White. The concluding day of the trial was one of absorbing interest, eyewitnesses of the tragedy and those who received the murderer's confession testifying. The alienists who examined the prisoner and declared him sane, and beyond a remarkable speech by Judge Lewis there was no defense.
The trial consumed two days.

EDWARDS HELD

By the Court to Await the Action
Of the Grand Jury.

Thursday Mack Edwards, the alleged forger, was given a preliminary hearing before county judge Rochester. The accused was defended by Mr. John Feland, of Hopkinsville, and Messrs. Allie Moore and Ollie James assisted county attorney Kevil in the prosecution. Edwards pleaded not guilty. He says it is a case of mistaken identity. Says he has not been in Marion for sixteen years, and never saw Mrs. Cameron until he was arrested. He claims that he was in Owensboro on the morning of Aug. 27th, the day the check was endorsed by Mrs. Cameron, and that he went from Owensboro to Madisonville in the afternoon. Two witnesses for the defense swore that the accused was in Owensboro, and Judge Clifton J. Pratt stated that Edwards was in his office in Madisonville on the afternoon of Aug. 27th, while Mrs.
Cameron is positive that he is the man for whom she endorsed the fraudulent check; Cashier Yandell states he is the man to whom he paid the money on the check, and other witnesses stated that they saw and conversed with the same man in this city on Aug. 27th. Mr.
Dunn, a hotel man of Guthrie,
was introduced by the prosecution and he stated that Edwards, the accused, was in Guthrie on Aug.
19th and that he endorsed a check for him on E. R. Webster & Co., of Cincinnati, which proved to be fraudulent. Edwards denies the charge and swore that he never saw Dunn before. After hearing the evidence the county judge bound him over to await the action of the grand jury, fixing the bond at $500. Judge Givens, of Madisonville, went on the bond and the prisoner was released.
Edwards' home is at Mortons Gap, Hopkins county.

THE RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by Citizens of Marion at Memorial Meeting.

At the memorial meeting held in this city last week the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, on the 6th day of September, 1901, our President was holding a public reception in the city of Buffalo, and at a time when thorough good feeling permeated the whole country, and the people who elected him looked to him with pride and confidence, the President was struck down by the hand of an assassin—an unpardonable crime, committed by a creature with an unpardonable name. This great national calamity shocked the whole world. Seventy-five million of American citizens stood at his bedside, hoping and praying that he might get well, but with broken hearts they forced to say, with the great congressman, Governor, ex-President, and President, "God's will be done," as he passed away, Sept. 14th, 1901.

President McKinley has written his name upon the walls of fame, for whether as Congressman leading his party by the light of his genius, as Governor or as President, he filled with distinction and honor; his private life and spotless character he left as a heritage to all his people; his devotion and love to an invalid wife was so beautiful that it gives a stronger and better definition of love than ever before.

Resolved, That, in this hour of sorrow and gloom we extend to his wife our love and sympathy, and that she may bear up bravely under this sorrow, almost crushing, until she is called to stand by the side of her martyred husband in that Republic of the Skies.

We condemn in unmeasured terms the cowardly act of the assassin; the mind staggers at its enormity, and for him there is no punishment so severe as would be commensurate with his crime; we call upon the law for rapid justice and that the assassin may meet the death he so richly deserves.

Resolved, That we call for such laws as will make anarchy impossible in this universe, and that it may be crushed beneath the heel of law; and while this is the land of the free it is not the home of the enemy of law, nor shall it be the abode of the government destroyer.

BEAUTIFUL WORDS.

Bryan's Touching Tribute to the Dead President.

A tribute from Wm. J. Bryan to the dead president was given to the associated press.

Quoting the words of Major McKinley, "God's will, not ours, be done," Mr. Bryan recalls the pathetic scene at the deathbed and continued: "The terrible deed at Buffalo, rudely breaking the ties of family and friendship and horrifying every patriotic citizen, crowns a most extraordinary life with a halo that can not but exalt its victim's place in history. His bravery during the trying ordeal, his forgiving spirit and his fortitude in the trying hour give glimpses of his inner life which nothing less tragic could have revealed.

"But inexpressibly sad as is the death of McKinley, the illustrious citizen, it is the damnable murder of McKinley, the president, that melts 75,000,000 hearts into one and brings a hush to the farm, the factory and the forum. Death is the inevitable incident of every human career. It despises the sword and shield of the warrior, and laughs at the precautions suggested by science; wealth cannot build walls high enough or thick enough to shut it out and no house is humble enough to escape its visitation. Even love, the most potent force known to man, even love is powerless in its presence. Its contingency is recognized in the marriage vow, 'Until death do us part,' and is written upon friendship's ring. But the death, even when produced by natural causes, of a public servant charged with the tremendous responsibilities which press upon a president shocks the entire country and is infinitely multiplied when the circumstances attending constitute an attack upon the government itself. No one can estimate the far-reaching effect of such an act as that which now exists a gloom over our land. It shames America in the eyes of the world; it impairs her moral prestige and gives enemies of free government a chance to mock at her and it excites indignation which, while righteous in itself, may lead to acts which will partake of the spirit of lawlessness."

"As the president's death overwhelms all in a common sorrow so it imposes a common responsibility, namely, to so avenge the wrong done to the president, his family and country as to make the executive life secure without abridging freedom of speech or freedom of the press."

S. S. CONVENTION.

Mr. R. M. Franks Tells of the Great Meeting:

ED. PRESS: I will write you a brief account of my trip to the State S. S. Convention at Danville.

I left Marion Aug. 27th, and arrived at Danville at 2 o'clock the next day. We were conducted to the basement of the First Presbyterian church, where after a long wait we received our certificates for homes. To say that my home was a good one would not do justice to the case. While waiting for our assignment the music in the upper room reminded me of the 3rd heaven; grand music I never heard. When I reached the upper floor I found a large audience singing under leadership of Prof R. M. Hopkins.

Rev J. B. Weaver, of the Baptist church, the former State President, was re-elected, and his responsive speech was soul thrilling. Address of welcome by W. J. Price—"You are ours."

Response by J. B. Weaver—"We are yours."

We met in this gathering about 450 delegates, and in all this host there were no children, except the page boys. This was an audience of supposed S. S. workers, and a large number of them were very enthusiastic. Some of the leading spirits of this convention were Baptists, among whom were Dr. W. W. Hamilton, Revs J. B. Weaver and J. D. Hoeker; will say, that Hoeker is successor to Fred Hale, of Owensboro.

One of the points of interest was the announcement from Mr. E. N. Woodruff that the State S. S. Association was out of debt and had $96 in the treasury. The convention also subscribed and paid in $1,000 to assist E. A. Fox, State Secretary, in the promotion of his work and keeping in the field and office work Miss Nonie Lee Frazier who has traveled almost all over the state and done a great deal of work that will only be told in eternity. I shall ever feel grateful to those who elected me as their delegate, and generously paid all my expenses.

In conclusion will say that I shall never be able to give out the good things I heard in the spirit that I received it but will say it was a feast of good things to my soul.

R. M. Franks, Co. Pres.

SCHOOL EXHIBIT.

The Teachers Called on to Contest in Institute.

At the regular session of the Crittenden County Teachers Institute this year it was arranged that as many teachers as would might bring school exposition work to the next regular county Institute. There being a fee of 25 cents charged every teacher who brought an exhibit and the total sum of these fees to constitute a prize to be given to the district that sends the best work to the Institute held in this county in the year 1902.

It is further provided that as many as eight schools shall be required to send work to the Institute to constitute a contest.

Eight teachers have already promised to enter the contest, thus making the contest practically a certainty.

After the above mentioned arrangement had been made, it was thought best to have some method of agitating the plan so that there might be as many schools as possible induced to enter the contest, thus accomplishing the greatest good possible.

The editor of the Crittenden Press very kindly agreed to publish articles on the subject from time to time, if the Institute would make it some one's business to collect material on the subject and arrange the articles ready for publication. This the Institute attended to.

A Great Favorite.

The soothing and healing properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a great favorite with people everywhere. .PEA THRESHING.

We have a New Bidwell Steam Pea Thresher that will take vine and pod into the machine and will separate the peas nicely cleaned and uncracked from the hay, as in threshing wheat; leaving the hay in better condition for feed than before threshing.

The time to cut peas for threshing is when two-thirds of the peas on vine are matured, after mowing the peas they should cure about one-half or two-thirds, then placed in small tall cocks for one or two days, then placed in shed, barn or rick, each rick should be well covered with hay or straw. The yield of peas per acre is 10 to 25 bushels. The price of peas next season from present prospect will be equal to last season's prices. We will send our machine into any neighborhood where we are assured 50 acres of a fair crop of peas. Our outfit consists of a traction engine, thresher, 4 horses and 4 men. All those wanting threshing done should notify us at once by postal card stating number of acres to be threshed to enable us to map out route and to let you know when to expect machine. Price for threshing 25 cents per bushel and will set to thresh 25 bushels of peas.

The Commoner.

(Mr. Bryan's Paper.)

The Commoner has attained within six months from date of the first issue a circulation of 100,000 copies, a record probably never equaled in the history of American periodical literature. The unparalleled growth of this paper demonstrates that there is room in the newspaper field for a national paper devoted to the discussion of political, economic and social problems. To the columns of The Commoner Mr. Bryan contributes his best efforts; and his review of political events as they arise from time to time can not fail to interest those who study public questions.

The Commoner's regular subscription price is $1.00 per year. We have arranged with Mr. Bryan whereby we can furnish his paper and THE PRESS together for one year for $1.75. The regular subscription price of the two papers when subscribed for separately is $2.00.

Let it Alone.

Scott's Emulsion is not a good medicine for fat folks. We have never tried giving it to a real fat person. We don't dare. You see Scott's Emulsion builds new flesh. Fat people don't want it. Strong people don't need it.
But if you are thin Scott's Emulsion is the medicine for you. It doesn't tire you out. There is no strain. The work is all natural and easy. You just take the medicine and that's all there is to it.
The next thing you know you feel better—you eat better—and you weigh more. It is a quiet worker.
